

Neutron Spin-Structure Studies and Standard Model Tests at JLab

Kees de Jager

Jefferson Lab

The most recent results on the spin structure of the neutron from Hall A will be presented and discussed. Then, an overview will be given of various experiments planned at Jefferson Lab to provide sensitive tests of the Standard Model at relatively low energies.